Briggs, who has built amazingly talented dance teams that perform at Boston Celtics games at TD Garden and have appeared on national television shows, said she was happy to be in Chelsea for the festive event celebrating the city’s arts and cultural community and local organizations.

“It felt great being back in my hometown of Chelsea, a city that has supported me so much over the years,” said Reia. “We hope that we inspired kids to come take classes at Phunk Phenomenon.”

Reia is the daughter of Barbara Casino of Chelsea.

sure that the emphasis is on the images — or, rather, the people in them.”

Well over 100 people attended the reception, including many Chelsea residents who came over the bridge to the Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center for the reception and a panel discussion about the perspective the photographs lend to the City of Chelsea. The panel was moderated by photographer and multilingual project collaborator, Sarah Putnam. The panelists included: Norieliz DeJesus (Chelsea City Council/Affordable Housing Trust Fund Board), Emily Menjivar (Chelsea High Student), Kyle Brown (Artist), Careliz Figueroa (Chelsea High School student, a youth activist, and the Junior Ambassador for the Chelsea Black Community). Her grandmother Celeste Williams attended the opening and a portrait of her was one of the photographs included in the exhibit.

DeVita received a Heritage grant from the Chelsea Cultural Council to partner with the Friends of the Chelsea Public Library to archive the photographs and audio. There will be a celebration and panel discussion of the project at the Chelsea Public Library in October.

The show closes tomorrow, September 23rd. Darlene will be in the Gallery from 12-4P. Arnie Jarmak’s opening reception is October 2, at the McMullen Museum of Art, Boston College.

Quite the crowd came out to the opening night of DeVita’s “People of Chelsea Project.”

GET THE NEW COVID SHOT NOW!

We realize that after two and one-half years of dealing with COVID-19, all of us just want to be done with COVID.

But the unfortunate reality is that COVID-19 is not done with us, despite what President Biden suggested in his interview on Sunday with 60 Minutes.

The number of Americans who still are contracting -- and dying from -- COVID each and every day continues to be staggering: The daily average of new COVID cases in the U.S. is more than 60,000 and the daily average for new deaths is almost 500. More Americans are dying from COVID every week than died on 9/11.

The toll that so-called long-COVID is wreaking on our population also is enormous. By some estimates, 20 percent of those who contract COVID, even if they have mild cases, will suffer from the effects of long-COVID, including many that are physically and mentally debilitating over the long term.

However, the availability of the new COVID-19 vaccine marks a huge step forward in our ability to reduce the ravages of the COVID pandemic. The new vaccine, which became available two weeks ago for all adults, is the only type of vaccine that can protect against the most dominant Omicron strains of COVID-19 in the US. The new booster is bivalent, which means it provides better protection against both the original strain of COVID-19 and the Omicron variants that are currently causing most infections (BA.4 and BA.5).

In addition, preliminary research suggests that the new vaccine offers significant protection not only against serious illness and death, but also against contracting long-COVID.

Health professionals are recommending that even if you have had COVID, you should get the new vaccine as soon as a month after your illness, and for those who have received all of the previous boosters, you should get the new vaccine two months after your last shot.

Those with compromised immune systems should consult with their doctor about getting the new vaccine.

We urge all of our readers not to walk, but to run, to a health care provider to get the new vaccine ASAP.

AMERICA NEEDS IMMIGRANTS MORE THAN EVER

For the first time in the history of the world, there are more people on the planet over the age of 65 than under five.

For industrial nations such as the U.S., this is a profound change from what has been the norm for the past 75 years, when the arrival of the Baby Boomer generation marked the beginning of just the opposite trend.

But with the Baby Boomers leaving the workforce in unprecedented numbers, we're seeing some of the effects of this new change in demographics. There simply are not enough Americans to fill jobs of all kinds -- reportedly there is just one worker for every two job openings -- and no matter how much the Fed raises interest rates, that is not going to change.

Moreover, as the majority of Baby Boomers begin to hit their 70s, the demand for service employees, ranging from healthcare professionals (doctors, nurses, home health aides) to the travel industry (flight crews, airline ground staff) is going to increase exponentially.

Whether going to a hospital emergency room or an airport these days, it's already a nightmare, with the consequences ranging from life-and-death to inconvenience.

Japan has been the canary in the coal mine of this demographic shift. Its economy has been stagnant for a decade and even shrinking in comparison to other nations because of the decline in its birth rate and its aging population.

The industrialized world is facing the reality of simple arithmetic: There are fewer young people to take care of a lot more old people.

In 1970, the median age of the U.S. population was 28.1. Today it is 38.6. In other words, our population today is almost a full generation older (if you count a generation as being 15-20 years) than it has been in the past.

With the U.S. government stuck in gridlock, it is obvious that we as a nation are not going to be able to do anything to address this impending seismic shift in demographics over the long term.

America's greatness always has stemmed from those who have immigrated from other countries. Immigrants come to America to make a better life for themselves and their families. They work hard and possess an entrepreneurial spirit. In addition, they bring a diversity that has created the wonder that is the American melting pot.

More than ever, America needs immigrants to fill the jobs and pay the taxes that will support our aging population.

We realize that a lot of people may not want to hear that -- but that is the reality.

GUEST OP-ED

The call of our common humanity

By Cardinal Seán Patrick O'Malley

Immigration policies and practices stand as an abiding moral, legal and political challenge to our Commonwealth and our country. We have delayed far too long in developing an effective response to immigrants, migrants, and refugees at a moment when the movement of men, women, children, and families surpasses any other known example in our history.

Our common humanity is the lens through which our response to immigrants and refugees must be judged. Pope Francis has made the plight of immigrants and refugees a constant theme of his pontificate. The Holy Father's witness, in word and deed, has been based on understanding immigrants and refugees as pilgrims forced by socio-economic conditions, human rights abuses, and the climate crisis to leave their homes in search of safety, security and stability for themselves and their families.

Last week the humanity and vulnerability which immigrants and refugees share has come home to us in Massachusetts. The Venezuelan refugees have come from a situation of enormous oppression and suffering in their own country.

As is often the case, human tragedy evokes moral goodness. The citizens of Martha's Vineyard have shown us all how common humanity motivates generosity and effective kindness. I commend young and old for their example and effective response.

The need for a systematic longer-term response is required. I thank Governor Baker for his promise of providing shelter and security for those who have come to us in Massachusetts without either. An effective strategy inevitably requires the leadership and assistance of state and city government. Within that basic framework other organizations can then make their skilled response.

Catholic Charities of Boston has informed me of their readiness to cooperate with civil authorities in welcoming those who come to our Commonwealth in need of assistance. Not only Venezuelans, but Haitians and other Latin Americans are caught up in the crushing emergency of the U.S. southern border. When non-profit agencies can partner with civil authorities, people at risk will find welcome, support and space to organize their lives.

In a globalized world, immigration challenges will continue. In our country a broken immigration system requires immediate reform. From the Dreamers who still seek legal stability in their lives, to those fleeing war in Ukraine, poverty in Latin America and Africa, or crises in the Middle East, the call of our common humanity will be with us for years to come. I pray we will be equal to the challenge.

OBITUARIES

Laura Steriti

August 8, 1930 – September 17, 2022

At 92 years of age, Laura M. (Richard) Steriti passed away Saturday evening, September 17 at the Cohen-Florence-Levine Estates in Chelsea.

Born and raised in Chelsea, she was a beloved daughter of the late Matthew P. and May G. (Savoy) Richard. Laura spent most of her life in the Mill Hill section of Chelsea where she married Philip A. Steriti and raised her children.

She worked at Everlastic and at the Soldiers Home. When she retired, she became an active member of the Chelsea Senior Center where she formed lifelong friendships. She loved to dance and was an avid reader. She loved listening to music and would often sing along. The holiday season was her favorite time of year when she could share her festive spirit with her family and friends. She believed in the power of prayer and said her rosaries daily. She often said her faith got her through the challenges she faced during her lifetime. Spending time with family was what she cherished the most.

She was pre-deceased by her husband, Philip Steriti, parents, May and Matthew Richard, sisters: Lillian Lemoure, Isabelle Caron, Stella Stahl, Jeanette Wasson and Nancy DesJardon, brother, Ronald Richard and her twin brother and best friend, Leonard Richard.

She is survived by her daughters: Lenore Steriti and her partner, Maria Paulo, Lea Steriti and her wife, Zoe Zarkadas, Maria Steriti and her partner, Joslyn Portier, Felicia Steriti-Smith and her husband, Chris; grandchildren: Leah McKeon and her husband, Sean, Philip Cowels and his wife, Kristina, Lani Steriti, Noah Cowels and partner, Danielle Angers; great grandchildren: Wesley and Milo McKeon, Joseph Cowels, Maddox Cowels and Great Grandchild #5 due to arrive on September 21st. She is also survived by her sister Elsie Fenby of Florida and many nieces and nephews.

Visiting hours were held from the Welsh Funeral Home, 718 Broadway, Chelsea on Wednesday and her Funeral will be from the funeral home today, Thursday, September 22 at 9 a.m. followed by a Funeral Mass at St. Rose Church, 600 Broadway, Chelsea at 10 a.m. Services will conclude with interment at Holy Cross Cemetery, Malden. In keeping with her charitable spirit and in lieu of flowers, donations may be made to your charity of choice.

To send expressions of sympathy, please visit: www.WelshFH.com.

Joseph “Sonny” Pescione

Of Revere

Joseph A. “Sonny” Pescione of Revere, formerly of East Boston and Everett, passed away on September 15.

The beloved husband of the late Deborah (Malcom) Pescione, he was the devoted father of Charissa Laszczkowski and her husband, Joseph of Chelsea, Joseph Pescione and Mark Cowell, both of Revere; dear brother of Doris DiRuzza and her late husband, Jack of East Boston, Phyllis Marcella of Revere and her husband, Richard and the late Antonette Dwyer; cherished grandfather of Gino Gillis, Mea Laszczkowski and Adriana Pescione. He is also survived by many loving nieces and nephews.

Family and friends will honor Joseph’s life by gathering at the Ruggiero Family Memorial Home, 971 Saratoga Street, East Boston on Saturday, September 24 from 8:30 to 9:30 a.m. before leaving in procession to Saint Joseph-Saint Lazarus Church, East Boston for a 10 a.m. Mass celebrating Joseph’s life. Services will conclude with Joseph being laid to rest at the Versailles Mausoleum at Woodlawn Cemetery in Everett.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations can be made in Joseph’s name to Campus School at Boston College, Campion Hall, 140 Commonwealth Ave, Chestnut Hill, MA 02467. To leave an online condolence visit www.ruggieromh.com.

Jordan Young

Of Chelsea

Jordan Young of Chelsea died on September 8.

The loving son of the late Norman and the late Sara Young, he was the dear brother of Sheldon Young, Sandra Padulsky and her husband, Morton, Barbara Nair and her husband, the late Howard Nair, Carl Young and his longtime companion, Nancy Dyer, the late Norton Young, the late Elaine Young, the late Carol Bell and her husband, the late John Bell and the late Neal Young.

Graveside services were held on Sunday, September 11 at 1 p.m. at Agudath Shalom Cemetery, 232 Fuller Street, Everett. Contributions in his memory may be made to the National Alliance of Mental Illness (NAMI), 4301 Wilson Blvd., Suite 300 Arlington, VA 22203. BRUINS Beat

by Bob Morello

Bruins sign Zdeno Chara

While it was not a surprise to receive notice that a press conference was to be held at TD Garden on Tuesday, regarding the retirement of former Bruins captain Zdeno Chara, it still came with bittersweet memories. Chara certainly filled the mold of a ‘true Bruin,’ he had the talent, the size and the intestinal fortitude – all the requirements. But, despite his 14-year reign as captain with Boston, it was still sad to see this hulk of a man call it a day. His trip to the Garden was due to a fine gesture by Bruins management, as they allowed Chara to sign a one-day contract with the team to officially retire from the National Hockey League, as a member of the Boston Bruins.

Among his many accolades with Boston, the now 45-year-old Chara led the Bruins to a post-season berth in 11 of his 14 seasons with the team, including a Stanley Cup Championship in 2010-11. He ranks sixth in franchise history in games played (1,023), and third in points by a defenseman (481) behind Hall of Famers Ray Bourque (1,506) and Bobby Orr (888). In addition, over his 24-year NHL career, Chara received several individual accolades. He was awarded the Norris Trophy as the NHL's best defenseman in 2008-09, after posting a career-high 19 goals and 31 assists in 80 games with Boston. He was the recipient of the Mark Messier Leadership Award in 2010-11 for his exemplary leadership both on and off the ice. He was named to the NHL First All-Star Team three times (2003-04, 2008-09, 2013-14), the Second All-Star Team four times (2005-06, 2007-08, 2010-11, 2011-12), and was selected to play in the NHL All-Star Game six times (2002-03, 2006-07, 2007-08, 2008-09, 2010-11, 2011-12). He was also the recipient of the Golden Puck as Slovakia's Player of the Year six times (2008-09, 2010-11, 2011-12, 2012-13, 2017-18, 2018-19). He twice received the silver medal with Slovakia in the IIHF World Hockey Championships (2000, 2012), and also received the silver medal with Team Europe in the 2016 World Cup of Hockey.

In 2011, Chara became the first Bruins captain to bring a Stanley Cup home to Boston since 1972. He would make two more trips to the Stanley Cup Finals in 2013 and 2019 and finished his career with totals of 18 goals and 52 assists for 70 points in 200 playoff games. Chara ranks first in the NHL with 14 career Game 7 appearances. In his 14 seasons as a Bruin, Chara ranked first among the team in games played (1,023), plus-minus rating (+240), penalty minutes (1,055), and time on ice per game (24:29). Chara finished his career in Boston with 148 goals and 333 assists for 481 points.

When asked about his decision to retire as a Bruin, Chara explained, “It wasn’t difficult. I knew before this day. I knew quite earlier than today, but I waited a little and wanted to really soak everything in. We had some conversations with Cam (Neely) and Don (Sweeney), and we were just waiting for the right timing. It’s a privilege, it’s such a huge honor, like said, to be part of this organization for so long and to retire as a Boston Bruin, it’s a huge amount of honor.” He further explained that he will take some time to enjoy retirement before making any further plans for hockey in the future, “It’d be really unfair to myself, my family, or to whatever I decide to do hockey-wise. To commit to something without knowing I can be committed one hundred percent to that specific job or task. Just want to enjoy being with my family, my kids especially. Just want to be taking days as they come. I think if there are opportunities or there’s something that will present in the future, there’s always going to be a chance to step in. But as of right now, I’m just kind of going to take some time and see how it goes.”

Chara was a constant in building a culture in Boston, quick to point out that it would have been impossible to do without Patrice Bergeron and Brad Marchand, both in attendance, plus the adjustments that added Neely and Sweeney to key roles in management. Asked about who brought out the best in him, Chara was quick to answer, “They’re sitting right here: Patrice, Marchy. We always compete against each other in the practices, but we knew that that would make the best of us; it would just bring the best of us. It

Judith Chapman

October 14, 1943 – September 7, 2022

Judith “Judie” (Isganderian) Chapman, who grew up in Chelsea, departed peacefully at the Mountain Vista ICU in Mesa, Arizona. She was 78 years old and had been hospitalized for eight months following complications from a knee replacement surgery performed in January, 2022.

Judie shared father Jacob Isganderian (deceased 1957) with her loving half-sister Barbara (Isganderian) Burt. Judie’s mother was Beatrice (Collins) Isganderian who was a resident of Chelsea until her passing in 1983. Barbara departed from this world in 2019 and was survived by her husband Jeffrey Burt.

Judie graduated from Chelsea High School in 1961. In high school, she loved to sing “doo-wop” with her friends at Revere Beach and in Chelsea Square. Judie remembered her teenage years in Chelsea with fondness and retained close friendships with her Chelsea cohorts: Helen (Bradley) Dobbyn, Linda Alickman and Virginia and Paul Eckman throughout all of her years.

In the late 60’s she married Charles “Charlie” Chapman. They moved to Durham, North Carolina where Judie worked as an assistant at Duke University for a time. She and Charlie amicably divorced in the early 1970’s and Judie moved to Chicago to live temporarily with her sister, Barbara. Judie soon found a place of her own and worked in several secretarial positions until she landed a position with General Electric in Oakbrook, Illinois as an office manager. In 1978 she became Finance Administrator for General Electric’s Genographics division in Oakbrook, Illinois. Genographics was the first commercial application of presentation computer graphics. She became Regional Finance Manager at Genographics’ Atlanta office where she lived for two years.

At Genographics, she met her future longtime partner, computer artist

Frederick “Fred” Vladova, whom she married in 1991 but not before moving to Palm Springs, California with him in late 1987. Judie understandably kept the Chapman surname although married to Frederick Vladova. She spent most of her California years as an office manager for Valleywide Sheet Metal in Palm Desert, California. Judie was a board member of their HOA for 15 years and ran the Architectural Committee.

Judie and Fred resided in California for 25 years until graphics work became scarce in Palm Springs and they decided to return to Chicago to rejoin family and seek new opportunities. Fred secured a developer position with data marketing firm Epsilon, which encouraged employees to work remotely anywhere in the country. So, Judie and Fred decided to try the Phoenix area for its warm weather and tech opportunities. In 2015 they purchased a home in Mesa, Arizona where Fred still works for Epsilon.

Judie and Fred were married for 31 years yet had no children. Judie is survived by her husband, Fred, along with sister Barbara Burt’s husband, Jeffrey Burt of Warrenville, Illinois, as well as nieces and nephews: Tom and Dana Stotz of South Carolina, Scott and Larnise Boain of St. Louis and Jeffrey Schuetts of Florida.

No formal services were held, but friends may contribute to Judie’s favorite charities in remembrance. Please donate to American Cancer Society (www.cancer.org) and St. Jude Cancer Research (www.stjude.org).

Orange Line, Green Line extension service resume on schedule

Special to the Times-Free Press

On Monday, September 19, both the Orange Line service and Green Line Union Square service resumed.

The MBTA initiated the 30-day full closure of the Orange Line on August 19 to complete five years of improvements in 30 days and bring track and signal infrastructure into a state of good repair, while also addressing safety actions identified by the Federal Transit Administration (FTA).

Orange Line track replacement work addresses FTA Special Directive

22-4 which mandates that the MBTA take actions related to maintenance of way. In Directive 22-4, the FTA noted that defective track conditions had forced the MBTA to implement slow zones where trains had to operate at restricted speeds. By replacing thousands of feet of rail during the Orange Line closure, the MBTA is eliminating the slow zones, and providing riders with faster and more reliable service.

“A tremendous amount of choreography, coordination, and hard work has been accomplished during these 30 days, including over a dozen projects to replace rail, track, signals, rail fasteners, and more that would have taken the T five years of nights and weekends to accomplish,” said MBTA General Manager Steve Poftak. “We’ve also met our goal of eliminating six slow zones along the Orange Line, which creates faster and more reliable commutes for customers, and surpassed our goal for new vehicles with 72 new Orange Line cars ready to serve riders. Thank you to all of our partner municipalities along the Orange Line for collaborating with us throughout the entirety of these 30 days; to the MBTA workforce, contractor crews, shuttle bus operators, Transit Ambassadors, in-station personnel, and more for their dedicated work, skill, and service; and especially to our Orange Line riders – we’re excited to welcome you back to a faster, safer, more reliable ride tomorrow on a line comprised of predominantly new cars.”

“The 30-day Orange Line shutdown was a monumental opportunity which allowed the MBTA to conduct critical maintenance operations aggressively to help ensure travel on the MBTA is safe, accessible, smooth, and convenient,” said MassDOT Secretary and CEO Jamey Tesler. “This historical undertaking would not have been possible without thorough and thoughtful multi-level coordination and collaboration, and I would like to thank MassDOT’s Highway Division for all their support, everyone who worked hard and spent countless hours helping to bring this project to fruition, and members of the public for all of their continued patience.”

“The MBTA’s Capital Transformation program has successfully applied its experience and lessons learned from previous surges as we brought together multiple other MBTA departments to continue the transformation of the Orange Line,” said MBTA Chief of Capital Transformation Angel Peña. “Our work during the Orange Line shutdown was rooted in our devotion to riders and their safety. This devotion will continue to drive our focus on quality, accessibility, modernization, and service for years to come.”

Work accomplished during the 30-day Orange Line closure includes:

- Elimination of six slow zones to allow for faster service at Jackson Square and Stony Brook, State and Downtown Crossing, Tufts Medical Center and Back Bay, Community College and North Station, and two slow zones between As-

Boston Mayor Michelle Wu passes through the turnstile to ride the newly re-opened Orange Line on Monday.

Permanent street changes following Orange Line shutdown announced

Mayor Michelle Wu and Chief of Streets Jascha Franklin-Hodge announced several street changes made to mitigate impacts from the MBTA’s Orange Line shutdown will be made permanent following the reopening of the Orange Line Monday. The Boston Transportation Department (BTD) took unprecedented steps to quickly install priority bus lanes, pop-up bike lanes, and change parking restrictions along the Orange Line route. Certain infrastructure changes that improved traffic flow or public safety will remain in place. The Mayor also announced street changes that will be temporarily removed and then reinstalled permanently. All other changes made during the Orange Line shutdown will be removed.

“Over the last 30 days, our City teams have been focused on measuring what’s working so we could ensure continual improvement during a stressful time of the Orange Line shutdown,” said Mayor Michelle Wu. “We’re keeping in place some of the changes that have helped with traffic flow and transit access, so that commuters will see lasting benefit above ground even as the subway comes back online. I’m so proud of the Boston Transportation Department for their hard work during this unprecedented event, and grateful to commuters across the region for their patience and input.”

“The past 30 days provided an opportunity to create new ways to use our public spaces to ease how residents move within the City,” said Chief of Streets Jascha Franklin-Hodge. “We look forward to working with the community to take the lessons learned and apply them to future infrastructure projects that will enhance public space and improve mobility for pedestrians, people on bikes, and transit riders.”

The following street infrastructure changes will remain in place:

- Chinatown MBTA SL5 bus stop: This newly added bus stop creates a vital link for Chinatown residents to the SL5.
- Copley Square area bus lanes: These bus lanes include Boylston Street (Ring Road to Clarendon Street); Clarendon Street (Boylston Street to Columbus Ave.); St. James Street (west of Berkeley Street to Dartmouth Street). These bus lanes support the 39, 9, and 10 bus routes, which together serve more than 10,000 riders per weekday.
- South End loading zones and drop-off zones: Changes to parking restrictions in this area will remain in place for improved curbside management and reduced double parking in the unprotected bike lane.
- Jamaica Plain pavement marking and signage: This includes traffic safety elements such as “Don’t Block the Box” and parking restrictions at corners to improve visibility. These changes have shown to improve traffic safety and management.
- Boylston Street one-way for vehicles: Closing part of Boylston Street (between Amory & Lamartine) to traffic throughout the shutdown has improved safety (collisions and near-misses) along the Southwest Corridor. Reopening this stretch as a one-way street from Amory to Lamartine for vehicles will support long-term bike connectivity plans, improve safety for all modes, and reduce conflict at the high crash intersection of Boylston and Lamartine Streets.
- Huntington Avenue bus & bike priority lane: The priority bus and bike lane that was added to Huntington Avenue from Brigham Circle to Gainsborough Street has improved speed for the Route 39 bus. As a permanent lane, it will continue to support the thousands of people who ride the Route 39 bus and will improve safety for those on bikes.

- Columbus Avenue pop-up bike lane: This will remain until early December and then be removed for the season. BTD Active Transportation will continue to monitor and move barrels daily to enable street sweeping. Long-term planning is underway for a potential permanent facility. This is one of the busiest corridors for biking. Improving conditions, even on just a few blocks, can make the overall trip safer and more enjoyable.
- Bluebikes parking: The City will retain Bluebikes docks added during the shutdown, with minor modifications as needed, to keep up with record-breaking ridership numbers. The City is also exploring options to provide free or low-cost bike share service.

The Boylston Street pop-up bike lane will be removed as the City works to design the recently announced permanent facility. Boylston Street is an important link in the bike network, and improved infrastructure here will make a safer ride for people biking from Brookline, Mission Hill, the LMA, and Back Bay to Downtown. The pop-up Boylston Street bike lane will be in place through September 26. The permanent Boylston Street bike lane will be prioritized for installation in the spring.

The Boston Transportation Department is also evaluating potential designs for additional protected bike lanes, pedestrian zones, bus lanes, and safety improvements informed by the changes that were temporarily in place during the Orange Line shutdown. These changes will undergo evaluation and engagement and be publicly announced before any implementation.

sembly and Wellington along Dana Bridge.

- Replacement of 14,000 feet of rail and more than 2,800 rail ties.
- Replaced 3,500 feet of track.
- Installation of 400 rail fasteners called “Cologne Eggs,” which dampen vibrations and noise for a more comfortable ride.
- Upgraded signals at Oak Grove and Malden Center from analog to digital to reduce time and maintenance.
- A total of 48,000 feet of new signal cable laid, including 45,000 feet of signal cable within the Southwest Corridor, which will be activated in 2023 as part of the Signal Upgrades project when the new system is placed in service.
- Repaired and weatherproofed Sullivan Square station’s roof and canopy to protect it from the elements and the roadway above.
- Forest Hills station is now fully accessible from both the Washington Street and Banks Place entrances. New granite tiles have also been installed at station entrances along with a new skylight. Additional improvements include the polishing and sealing of the terrazzo, painting lobby ceilings, and completing construction of the redundant lobby elevator.
- Upgraded two Crossovers at Ruggles and Jackson Square so trains can seamlessly move between tracks.
- Updated Oak Grove’s accessibility by replacing the roof, doors, windows, stairs, granite, pavers, terrazzo flooring, and elevators.

- Readied 72 new Orange Line cars, an increase from 30 cars when the Orange Line shutdown first started.
- Riders should be aware that slow zones will remain in place for about a week after service resumes. This is because it takes time for the new track and ballast to settle as trains repeatedly run over the areas where the slow zone removal work was done.

The Orange Line provides approximately 101,000 trips each day with ridership approximately 49% of pre-pandemic ridership.

With the reopening of the Orange Line, the CharlieCard Store located within Downtown Crossing will increase its business hours to better serve MBTA customers. On Mondays, the CharlieCard Store will be open by appointment, and Tuesday through Friday it will be open 8:30 AM to 5 PM, serving all transactions.

Commuter Rail Updates Effective September 19

Because many Orange Line riders chose the Commuter Rail during the Orange Line closure, the T will add Oak Grove station to the Haverhill Commuter Rail Line schedule as a Zone 1A stop to offer riders an additional choice to their daily commute. Nine train stops at Forest Hills station that were added during the Orange Line shutdown will also continue on the Franklin and Providence/Stoughton Commuter Rail Lines, ensuring two trains an hour in the weekday morning inbound peak at

Commuter Rail announces service changes as Orange Line service returns

Keolis and the MBTA announced several changes to Commuter Rail operations as the Orange Line returned to service on Monday. Oak Grove station, which was reopened to support passengers during the Orange Line service disruption, will remain in service, becoming a regular stop on the Haverhill Line in Zone 1A. Additionally, some of the service that was added at Forest Hills Station will remain, ensuring two trains an hour in the weekday morning inbound peak at that station. All passengers are reminded that regular fare collection will resume for Zones 2, 1A and 1. The amended schedules can be found online at <https://www.mbta.com/schedules/commuter-rail>.

“We’re pleased to add Oak Grove as a permanent regular stop on the Haverhill Line and to make additional stops at Forest Hills going forward,” said MBTA General Manager Steve Poftak. “This is an exciting development that came about following the Orange Line shutdown that we hadn’t previously planned. Thank you to our partners at Keolis for their teamwork during the Orange Line diversion and collaboration on these station and schedule improvements.”

“During the Orange Line service disruption, we welcomed many new riders to the Commuter Rail,” said Abdellah Chajai CEO of Keolis Commuter Services. “We hope that they found their trips to be reliable and convenient and that they will continue to see the Commuter Rail as a great option for their transportation needs.”

Ahead of the Orange Line service disruption, Oak Grove Station was recommissioned to offer a service alternative for Orange Line riders. As part of recommissioning, repairs were made to the Commuter Rail platform, including installation of new a new platform edge tactile and updated signage. Additional upgrades to the lighting will be made now that the station is being permanently returned to the schedule.

During the Orange Line service disruption, in preparation for the post Labor Day return to work and school, Commuter Rail service at Forest Hills station was expanded, offering a 5 inbound trains in the 7:00 a.m. hour and 4 trains an hour for the remainder of the weekday peak. With the Orange Line returning to service, the Commuter Rail will maintain some of that additional service, ensuring two trains an hour inbound during the weekday morning peak.

When the Orange Line returned to service on September 19, the Commuter Rail returned to its normal fare collection practices, requiring visual validation of a ticket purchased for the appropriate zone. Passengers will no longer be able simply show a CharlieCard to ride trains within Zone 2. Passengers are reminded that Commuter Rail tickets can be purchased on the mTicket mobile app, at fare vending machines, and at ticket windows at North, South and Back Bay stations. For more information about Commuter Rail fares visit www.mbta.com/fares/commuter-rail-fares Passengers can stay connected with Commuter Rail by calling customer service at 617-222-3200, following @MBTA_CR on Twitter or signing up for T-Alerts at www.mbta.com/alerts.

CHS FOOTBALL TEAM HOSTS MALDEN THIS FRIDAY EVENING AT 6:00

The Chelsea High football team will be seeking to break into the win column when coach Michael Jackson and his crew host Greater Boston League rival Malden for a Friday Night Lights battle tomorrow evening at Chelsea Stadium.

The opening kickoff for the encounter between the Red Devils and the Golden Tornadoes is set for 6:00.

TWO SHUTOUT WINS FOR BOYS SOCCER TEAM

The Chelsea High boys soccer team earned a pair of impressive shutout victories this past week in contests with Greater Boston League foes Everett and Lynn English.

Coach Mick Milutinovic's Red Devils hosted Everett last Thursday afternoon and took the measure of their archrivals by a score of 5-0.

Milutinovic was forced to make some adjustment to his starting lineup because of injuries, moving captain Jose "Smiley" Melendez from left defender to center attacking midfield, a switch that would prove to be crucial to the CHS victory.

The Red Devils set the tone early in the match when captain Jefferson Ruiz played a lobbed through-ball to freshman Jose Joj on the right. Jose dribbled past an Everett defender and returned the ball to Jefferson on the ground, who delivered a one-time strike that beat the Everett keeper for a 1-0 Chelsea lead.

Chelsea made it 2-0 15 minutes later when the Red Devils had a throw-in from the left. The ball found its way to Melendez's feet, allowing him to dribble to the edge of the box, from where "Smiley" delivered a clean strike that beat the Everett keeper to the near post.

With 10 minutes left in the first half, Melendez was back at work, picking up the ball from the center of the pitch and dribbling 30 yards upfield. Smiley found himself with space outside the box and delivered a powerful shot across goal and into the back of the Everett net to make it 3-0.

Shortly after that, an Everett player received a red card, which left the Crimson Tide a man down for the rest of the game.

The Red Devils wasted no time in taking advantage of the numerical

JPNA HEARS ABOUT SUMNER ST. PROJECT

EAST BOSTON - The developer for the four-unit housing project at 516 Sumner Street gave a final presentation at a meeting of the Jeffries Point Neighborhood Association (JPNA) on Monday night. Matt Eckel, who was representing Michael Stuchins, the developer, outlined some of the changes that have been made after abutters expressed some concerns at the last community meeting.

He noted that the roof deck had been eliminated and that the new addition at the rear of the building had been reduced in size, thereby reducing the footprint of the structure. The smaller addition will accommodate one additional bathroom per unit and will provide an interior egress stairwell. Eckel noted that there was no way to get off-street parking for the project.

Several residents still had questions about the project. One resident was concerned that the existing tree in the backyard. Eckel assured the resident that the tree would not be taken down since the footprint of the building would not extend as far into the backyard as the current deck.

Another resident asked about a shadow study. Eckel said that there is a shadow study report in the application and noted that the height of the building is virtually the same as the existing structure. Another resident asked about keeping the first floor as a commercial space. Eckel noted that the "better use of the space is for residential."

Residents were reminded that voters will be using eBallots and must cast their vote by Friday, September 16, at 7 p.m. Late votes will not be accepted.

In Other News
Mary Cole announced that she has stepped down from the JPNC after several years of service. Elected officials in attendance were highly complimentary of Cole's time on the board.

When you moved here, you became highly involved and everyone is better off because of your service," Rep. Adrian Madaro said.

Senator Lydia Edwards noted, "I remember when we first met. You have incredible energy and are a resource to the people."

District 1 City Councilor Gabriela Coletta added, "You were someone who got right to work and you were always welcoming and warm, a strong advocate. I learned a lot from you."

Cole said that she was "humbled and a little embarrassed" by the accolades that came her way.

But, she said, "I am not going anywhere, I will never sell or move out."

Joshua Schmidt was sworn in at the meeting to take over Cole's place on the board.

COUNCIL HEARS OF SCHOOL OVERCROWDING - AGAIN

EVERETT - School overcrowding once again reared its head at Monday night's City Council meeting.

Several speakers during the public participation expressed concerns about the overcrowding situation at several of the city's schools.

Former City Councilor Fred Capone noted that many of the schools are far exceeding the student capacity for which they were designed: the high school by 400, the Whittier by 150, the Parlin by 250, and the Lafayette by 150.

An appropriation order of several items that totaled $4,014,000 had included a $2 million request for modular units to alleviate overcrowding at the George Keverian that would be placed in front of the school.

Superintendent Priya Tahiliani had explained that the Keverian is overcrowded by about 200 students and needs to have the modular classrooms.

She noted that the modular classrooms would not be ready before September, 2023, at the earliest. She also noted that other schools would need to have modular classrooms added to their structures.

However, the line item was removed from the appropriation by the councilors, who all agreed that the future use of both the old high school and the former Pope John XXIII site should be explored before approving appropriations for modular classrooms.

The councilors voted to retain the following appropriations, which included many items for the schools: School Alarm Panels, $200,000; Keverian School Heat Units, $56,000; Fire Ladder Truck, $76,000; High School Boiler Burners, $40,000; Keverian School Heaters, $12,000; Keverian School Cooling Units, $730,000; and Maddy English Cooling Unit, $900,000.

City Chief Financial Officer Eric Demas noted these amounts were the result of added costs because of inflation from the original time that the money for these projects was appropriated.

Councilors also heard from both Tahiliani and Erin Deveney, the Mayor's Chief of Staff, about both the drawbacks and the positives for using the former Pope John building as a school, rather than for affordable housing.

Mayor Carlo DeMaria has retained an architectural firm to evaluate the Pope John building for school use. The findings should be ready later in the month.

"A quick fix is not good for students," said Deveney.

Tahiliani added, "Pope John will not fix all the problems."

"We need to get the facts here ... we have a lot of questions that need to be answered," said Councilor Richard Dell Isola, reflecting the sentiments of both his fellow councilors and the city's taxpayers.

RED SOX HONOR JAZZY SPORTS

LYNN - On Wednesday, September 14, the Red Sox honored Jazzy Sportswear for over 25 years of service to the Boston Red Sox at the Sox-Yankees game at Fenway Park. The Red Sox franchise has been supporting local small businesses, like Jazzy Sports, as a demonstration of their support of a diverse community supply chain.

"It is an honor to be awarded by the Boston Red Sox for my service for over 25 years. Twenty-six years ago, Ron Burton Jr. gave me an opportunity to provide branded products for Red Sox Community Relations," says founder of Jazzy Sportswear, Vincent Williams.

A relationship beginning in 1996 has survived to present day, and later resulted in Williams' volunteering for Ron Burton Training Village, an enrichment camp that has served over 9,000 young men and women over the last 33 years in their spiritual, physical and educational growth. The Leadership and STEM Journey programs train villagers over a seven year period, preparing them with skills, mentorship and leadership opportunities.

Jazzy Sportswear is located at 110 Broad Street in Lynn, and has been a member of the Lynn Chamber of Commerce since 1990. Vincent Williams modestly accepts this honor and looks forward to supporting the Boston Red Sox and their fans for years to come.

REVERE MOURNS LOSS OF COUNCILLOR

REVERE - George Rotondo, a popular city councillor who served for close to 15 years in Revere government, died unexpectedly on Sept. 11, 2022. Mr. Rotondo was 55.

Mr. Rotondo was elected three times as Ward 4 councillor and five times as councillor-at-large. Mr. Rotondo was known for speaking out vigorously on matters, always advocating the best interests of his constituents. As a professional certified nurse, Mr. Rotondo often lent his expertise on issues related to the health field that were before the Council.

The City Council paid tribute to Mr. Rotondo at its meeting Monday night with a moment of silence and a resolution of condolence in his honor.

City Council President Gerry Visconti delivered heartfelt remarks honoring Mr. Rotondo's public service and dedication to his position of councillor.

"This weekend, the City of Revere lost one of our own," said Visconti. "We are deeply saddened to hear of the passing of Councillor George Rotondo. He was our colleague, our neighbor, and our friend. He served this Council and the city with pride and conviction for 14-plus years in the best way he knew how. Those that knew George know that he was a councillor that wasn't afraid of voicing his opinion on different issues. The conversation we will have in these chambers won't be the same without him."

"On behalf of the entire City Council, we would like to express our deepest condolences to the Rotondo family, his loves ones, and everyone that called George a friend. He will be missed by many. May he rest in peace."

Anthony Zambuto, who served on the City Council with Mr. Rotondo, said that Mr. Rotondo was "a good friend and colleague."

Zambuto recalled how he and Mr. Rotondo participated in a recount of the vote together last year, with Mr. Rotondo emerging as the victor for a seat on the Council.

"We had our differences politically here and there, but at the recount he was very respectful, and we considered each other friends," said Zambuto. "He really cared about the city. He had a different style, but he had a good heart, and he was a good guy and a good city councillor. I'm just very saddened by his passing and offer my sincerest condolences to his family."

State Rep. Jeff Turco lauded Mr. Rotondo's outstanding service to Revere residents. "Councillor Rotondo served the people of Revere very well," said Turco. "I am friends with his family, and I grieve with them and for them for their loss."

LOCAL BUSINESS GETS RECOGNIZED

WINTHROP - Nico Ruggieri works with local companies to grow their businesses, but it's the growth of his company that's getting attention these days.

The company, Pinpoint Payments Inc., which provides payment processing solutions for local retailers and eCommerce, was named to the Inc. 5000 list of the Fastest growing U.S. companies for the fifth year in a row. Ruggieri co-founded the company with partners Ben Grossman and Gilboa Merdinger. He works locally with Mark Shannon.

"This is a competitive field, but we are really focused on working with local businesses that want to expand within their community," said Ruggieri of Winthrop.

The company started with a focus on fraud prevention for businesses and expanded into payment processing based on the needs of the companies they worked with.

"People don't realize how much of a difference having the right payment processing solution can make," Ruggieri said. "It's all about customer service and making things easier and safer for your customers."

Shannon, a Winthrop native, said the difference is having a focus on what local businesses need.

"We have a strong community in this area. We're focused on helping businesses here build on that," he said.

Pinpoint's customers include Winthrop Pro Shop, McCormick Flowers, Cimino Meat Market, A&V Nails, Kirby Funeral Home and Caggiano Funeral Home, and, Swetts Liquors.

The company recently added a comprehensive Point of Sale system, PeakPOS, that can be customized to meet the needs of stores, restaurants, salons, and more.

Gov. Baker signs landmark Judiciary IT bond bill into law

Following action by House and Senate lawmakers, An Act to Improve and Modernize the Information Technology Systems and Capacities of the Judiciary was signed into law this week. The legislation makes a once in 25-year investment in modernizing the technology and security of court houses across Massachusetts. Additionally, this bill responds to the controversial U.S. Supreme Court New York State Rifle & Pistol Association, Inc. v. Bruen decision by tightening Massachusetts safety standards to comply with the decision while ensuring that local police chiefs personally interview each applicant for a license to carry.

“The Commonwealth’s gun laws are some of the strongest in the nation, helping Massachusetts to achieve one of the lowest gun death rates in the country. This legislation takes imperative steps to ensure that our gun laws comply with the Supreme Court’s ruling in the New York State Rifle & Pistol Association, Inc. v. Bruen case,” said House Speaker Ronald J. Mariano (D-Quincy). “I’m proud that this legislation will also ensure that the Commonwealth’s court system’s virtual operations can occur more efficiently, a function that continues to be increasingly important. I want to thank my colleagues in the House, our partners in the Senate, and Governor Baker for supporting these vital changes and improvements.”

“I’m proud of the Commonwealth’s strong gun laws, which save our residents’ lives, and I’m proud that the Legislature has taken quick action to defend them,” said Senate President Karen E. Spilka (D-Ashland). “Our courts do invaluable work. In an increasingly virtual and hybrid world, this legislation will support this work and allow our courts to continue to operate without interruption. I want to thank my colleagues in the Senate, especially Senate President Pro Tempore Brownsberger, Majority Leader Creem and Minority Leader Tarr, for their work on these issues, and our partners in the House for their work to help pass this important legislation.”

“I’m proud the House has moved to uphold the strength of the Commonwealth’s gun laws, which have proven effective in making us one of the lowest gun crime states across the country,” said Representative Adrian Madaro (D-East Boston). “And by modernizing the technological capabilities of courthouses we ensure that the judicial system can better and more efficiently serve Massachusetts residents.”

“When courts do not have proper communication systems, let alone access to a reliable internet connection, it limits the Judiciary’s ability to serve the people. I am proud to have advanced this bill which promises to enhance the courts efficiency. This will improve our residents’ access to justice by providing a more equitable approach to the law,” said Representative Michael S. Day (D-Stoneham), House Chair of the Joint Committee on Judiciary. “In addition to this historic investment, we also take action to strengthen our gun safety measures, so the Commonwealth can continue to be one of the safest places in America.”

“We got a good bill done that responds directly to the challenge raised by the recent Supreme Court decision on guns,” said Senate President Pro Tempore William N. Brownsberger (D-Belmont). “It was a good collaborative process and we were able to get to yes relatively quickly.”

“An Act to improve and modernize the information technology systems and capacities of the judiciary” (H.5076) includes the following:

Establishing Digital Courthouses and Courtrooms:

$95 million will allow courts to go digital along with the safety features required to securely store information. A court management system will allow for electronic filing systems, a workflow engine to manage court operations, and enable system wide real-time docketing and data access. Courthouses and courtrooms will be empowered to provide wireless internet access in courthouses for court staff and court users, as well as to install digital signage. Additionally, parole boards of the Department of Correction will be able to record and securely store audio recordings of parole board hearings.

Firearm Licensing

The recent New York State Rifle & Pistol Association, Inc. v. Bruen Supreme Court decision stripped local police chiefs of significant discretion regarding who may possess and carry a firearm. In the wake of this decision, this bill amends Massachusetts law to bring gun licensing provisions into compliance with the Supreme Court decision and to ensure that individuals seeking a license to carry are first interviewed personally by their local police chief.

Increasing Equitable Access to Resources

Funding will also go toward promoting equitable access for low-income residents to virtual filing and appearance services, court services, and public safety services. These provisions will also include technology for direct electronic video conferencing with registrars’ and magistrates’ offices of the trial court during hours of operation for attorneys and members of the public.

Physical Security Systems

$35 million will be allocated to ensuring the safety of the Court’s employees and guests. This will include costs associated with establishing a digital security system to protect court systems, networks and data. It will allow for the replacement of physical security hardware such as video surveillance systems, duress systems, security scanning systems and interpersonal communications equipment. State funds will also go toward projects to support the safety of victims and witnesses while in court-system facilities and to improve centralized law enforcement communication systems.

Court Modernization

The legislation also provides an additional $35 million investment in the technological modernization of court administrative operations. Projects that will receive funding from this investment include upgraded data storage systems, secure virtual private networks for employees, and projects to increase internet bandwidth capacity in courts. Additionally, the bill includes changes to encourage courts’ utilization of information technology. The bill allows courts to electronically imprint their seal and to have certain documents be signed and stored electronically.

Licensed Mental Health Counselor

Along with adding physical security and protections, this bill expands the definition of sexual assault counselor to include a person who is under the supervision of a licensed mental health counselor. This expansion will expand protections for survivors of sexual violence.

“Our current judicial system is difficult for people of color to engage in when they don’t have access to technology and resources,” said Representative Chynah Tyler (D-Boston), House Vice Chair, Joint Committee on the Judiciary. “The passing of this legislation will make it easier for residents of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts to navigate our judicial system better.”

“Outdated technology makes navigating the court system frustrating for everyone, from criminal defendants to lawyers and litigants. The IT investments we authorize in this bill will improve the administration of justice by ensuring that the Commonwealth’s courts operate more efficiently,” said Senate Majority Leader Cynthia Creem (D-Newton). “The bill also makes sure that Massachusetts’ gun licensing scheme is not vulnerable to constitutional challenge following a recent decision of the Supreme Court. Thanks to our strong gun laws, the Commonwealth has one of the lowest rates of firearm deaths in the nation. This bill demonstrates the Legislature’s firm commitment to maintaining and improving our successful approach to preventing gun violence.”

“The judicial IT bond bill makes a significant financial investment in critical technology upgrades that are needed to help modernize our state’s court system,” said Representative Todd M. Smola (R-Warren). “Providing for digital document management and the electronic filing of legal documents and signatures will help streamline administrative operations and ensure that the courts are more user-friendly, open and accessible to the public.”

“We must always strive to make our judicial system well-managed, efficient, and accessible, and this legislation authorizes spending to advance those goals by funding modern information technology, security, and communications infrastructure,” said Senate Minority Leader Bruce Tarr (R-Gloucester). “I am thankful that it also prioritizes safety for victims and witnesses, by including an amendment I offered to direct funding to creating and improving safe spaces for these individuals, whose participation is critical to the administration of justice in our Commonwealth.”

would just prepare us for the games. I always kept telling them, if the practice is harder than the game, then that’s how it should be so then the games became easier.”

Reflecting back to Boston’s Stanley Cup win in 2011, “We won it together. It’s not me because I was the captain. We did it together. We had such a committed group. We all bought in to what we did prior years in the practices. Every day, we made commitments to each other and to the team and the organization. To finally accomplish it in winning the Stanley Cup, it was such a relief and such a happy moment for everybody, because we did it together. We did it as a group. And the celebrations are just something we will never forget. If you ask any of us, that’s the best memories we have. I think it’s pretty special, this city, the fan base we have, the success the teams have around here. It’s pretty special. I’m very happy, like I said. This is our home. My kids were born here, and we call it home, and we love this city and the fans.” Looking ahead for Chara, first, the Bruins’ raising his number 33 to the rafters, and following the three-year mandatory wait, induction into the Hockey Hall of Fame.

Bruins 2022 Training Camp began yesterday (Wednesday) at Warrior Ice Arena. Pre-season game schedule includes, Saturday, September 24 at 7pm v. Philadelphia Flyers; Tuesday, September 27 at 7pm v. New York Rangers – TDG; Saturday, October 1 at 1pm v. Philadelphia Flyers – TDG; Monday, October 3 at 7pm

v. New Jersey Devils; Wednesday, October 5 at 7pm v. New York Rangers at 7pm; and Saturday, October 7 v. New Jersey Devils at 7pm – TDG.

tage of the situation, adding another goal before the intermission. With the half-time whistle coming at any moment, defender Arquimidis Barreiro cleared the ball long, where it bounced in front of Melendez. Smiley then struck the ball with the outside of his foot on the half volley, chipping the ball over the Everett keeper, who was off his line, to complete his first-half hat trick of three goals in 20 minutes .

The second half proved much less action-packed as the Red Devils were able to control the game with an extra man on the field. To cap off the victory, Ruiz was fouled in the box and was awarded a penalty kick. Jefferson calmly stepped up to deliver the ball to the keeper's left for the successful PK to account for the final score of 5-0.

Milutinovic's crew then made it two straight shut-out wins with a 2-0 blanking at Lynn English this past Tuesday.

The contest was a stalemate for most of the first half. Chelsea keeper Daylin Yanes made two big saves early on to maintain the game at nil-nil.

"Daylin's presence in goal gave our back line confidence all game," noted CHS assistant coach William Estrada.

Toward the end of the first half, Red Devil Christian Palacios played a long ball into the box after beating his man in the middle of the field. The ball bounced awkwardly for midfielder Wander De Pina, who was able to make something out of nothing when he tipped the ball with his head over the head of the English keeper and then sprinted past the keeper, giving Wander an open net to score the first goal of the game.

The second half proved to be a repeat of the first, with neither team able to assert control. However, Chelsea took advantage of a corner kick opportunity to add an insurance goal.

After seeing an open space by the near post, Kevin Garcia played the ball on the ground for Ruiz, who was able to one-time the ball with the outside of his foot for his fourth goal of the season to make it 2-0.

Milutinovic and his crew, who stand at 2-1-1 on the season, will make the short trip northward up Broadway for another rivalry game against Revere today (Thursday) and will host Medford at 11:30 this Saturday morning at Chelsea Stadium. They will entertain Malden next Wednesday afternoon.

CHS VOLLEYBALL TEAM DEFEATS SOMERVILLE, EVERETT

The Chelsea High volleyball team defeated a pair of Greater Boston League rivals, Somerville and Everett, this past week.

Last Monday the Lady Red Devils defeated Somerville, 3-1. Among the chief highlights for Chelsea were: Jasmine Varela played an overall strong game, serving six aces, delivering five kills, and making six digs; Gui-daysis Castro Santiago added four aces and 13 digs; and Yareliz Gonzalez Falcon delivered five aces.

Two days later, the Lady Red Devils blanked Everett, 3-0. The top individual performances for Chelsea came from Jasmine Varela, who served seven aces; Rileigh Connors who had 11 assists and four aces; Tatiana Sanabria Herrera, who had nine kills and four aces with five digs; and Guidaysis Castro Santiago, who served five aces and accounted for 11 digs.

The Red Devils then went up against an undefeated Malden squad on Friday and came up short by a score of 3-1.

A number of Lady Red Devils turned in outstanding performances. Libero Guidaysis Castro Santiago had 15 digs. Tatiana Sanabria Herrera added 10 digs, five aces, and four kills. Jasmine Varela had three aces, eight kills, and 10 digs. Setter Rileigh Connors earned 14 assists.

This past Monday Chelsea fell to Revere, the other undefeated team in the GBL, by a score of 3-0.

"Unfortunately, I lost half my starters, who were out sick, for the match against Revere," noted CHS head coach Gabriel Morales. "Despite that, our Libero, Guidaysis Castro Santiago, had 16 digs for the game."

Morales and his crew, who now are 3-2 in the GBL (3-3 overall), were scheduled to play at Medford yesterday (Wednesday) and will trek to Lynn English next Wednesday.

CHS GIRLS SOCCER FALLS JUST SHORT IN 1-0 LOSS TO ENGLISH

Although the Chelsea High girls soccer team has yet to break into the win column, the Lady Red Devils have been working hard and improving as the season progresses.

After coach Randy Grajal's squad fell to Greater Boston League rivals Somerville (8-0) and Everett (6-1) last week, the Lady Red Devils fought valiantly in their battle with Lynn English this past Tuesday in which the Lady Red Devils fell by the slim margin of 1-0.

In the Everett match, sophomore Yoselin Acosta reached the back of the Crimson Tide net to account for the CHS goal.

"The team has had a slow start," said Grajal. "But the group has been working hard."

The coach noted the fine play and leadership of senior Ashley Navarro.

"I am very pleased with the performance by Ashley, who has been a centerpiece of the team," said Grajal. "She demonstrates leadership on the field and she pushes the other players on the team to do better."

"A new week is underway and I hope to continue improving on the positive things we have seen so far," Grajal added.

Grajal and his crew are scheduled to host GBL foe Revere today (Thursday). They will trek to Medford Saturday morning and to Malden next Wednesday.

Green Line service between Union Square and Government Center stations will also resume at the start of service tomorrow. The T suspended service last month to facilitate the opening of the Medford Branch of the Green Line Extension in late November 2022 and to allow for continued work at the Government Center Garage project.

Completed work on the Green Line Extension includes:

- Adjustments to the overhead wire on the East Cambridge Viaduct that eliminated a temporary slow zone, allowing trolleys to operate at the sys-tem’s designed speed of 25 mph on a permanent basis.

- Final testing and integration of track switches, power lines, signal equipment, and digital communications between the Green Line’s Union Branch, the soon-to-be-operational Medford Branch, and the MBTA’s Operations and Control Center.

- Installation of the last remaining sound wall panels along the Union Branch and additional work items along the Union and Medford Branches’ including track, stations, and rights of way.

As with the Orange Line, Green Line riders should note that slow zones will continue to be in place temporarily for about one week where the work was performed.

SUNSHINE AND SOCIALIZING AT CHELSEA DAY

Photos and Story
by Marianne Salza

Families gathered along Broadway to celebrate local businesses and the vibrant residents of the city during Chelsea Day, on September 17. There were sidewalk sales, a beer garden in Luther Place, and carnival games from Fifth to Third Streets. Non-profit organizations provided information about programming and offered arts and crafts for children. According to a proud Chelsea High School student, Chelsea is “a community of love and passion.”
